Notes

Henry Washington Poplin

Henry Washington Poplin was born September 1862 in Anson County, North Carolina. He died on December 22, 1930 in Sumter County. Henry walked to Sumter, South Carolina in 1882 bringing with him a wealth of knowledge of the banjo and the fiddle. He met his wife Josephine Elizabeth Hodge in Sumter. (Family Sheet)

Henry is a descendant of George Poplin born about 1720. George purchased 550 acres of land in Orange County, NC in 1761 and died between 1775 and 1777. He married Every and their children were named William, John, Jane, Nancy, Gorg, Richard, Abe, Mimy, Henry, and Every. He came to North Carolina from Virginia. We think he lived in either Albemarle County or Goochland County in Virginia before moving to North Carolina around 1735.

Willie Bell Poplin

(Joe Kenneth Wadford) was a child of Shuford Wadford and Aunt Sue Poplin Wadford (her name actually Willie Bell) By accident Shuford shot Aunt Sue and damaged her left arm to the extent that it had to be amputated. After Shuford died, she later married Benjamin McCrary Baxter. Uncle Ben was a wonderful father to her son Joe. After Joe reached adulthood, he had his name legally changed to Baxter.
